LIFE OF A LADY TEACHER IS AS EXCITING AS IT IS CHALLENGING TOO

~ Sriyadevi Swain

(Assistant Teacher, Rambha Govt. high school, ganjam, odisha)

Teaching is not just my profession but a calling to positively impact my students' lives. Despite the challenges, their strength and determination inspire me to give my best every day. The success I've achieved is a reflection of their growth and the belief that every effort counts in shaping a better future.

The smiles of my students make all my worries vanish, reminding me that teaching is a responsibility, not just a job.

As a lady teacher it is most important to be a part of students' life, to make their hopes and dreams come true and to keep alive their desires. When I started my career as a teacher at the age of 22 in famous govt high school in my locality, I had a big challenge that how could I make myself established as a good teacher. Students from different social, economical and cultural background come to learn in this school which is consisting of more than 400 students. So it is very difficult task to bind them in a single thread. I accepted this challenge and became successful too upto some extent. There was another challenge for me that I was a lady teacher. For some times it was unbearable for me to handle all the household work, taking care of my in-laws, taking care of my son and along with performing the school work. Still my all worries get vanished by seeing the smiling face of the students in the school. Many of my students do not get two times food a day yet. I feel my pain very less as compared to them When I see their pain. I have come to teachership with a service mindset and not as a profession. I think that I am a craftsman in this man making factory. So if the craftsman becomes little negligent, the future of the nation will be destroyed. Today whatever success I have all those credit goes to my students.

A Life Dedicated to Learning, Teaching, and Inspiring Others

~ Priyanka Franky Fernandes

A journey of resilience and transformation, showcasing how passion, perseverance, and support from loved ones can turn challenges into milestones, blending careers in hospitality, teaching, and influencing to inspire and uplift others.

You'll never change your life until you change the habits you do daily. Step out of your comfort zone to turn your dreams into reality.

Building Dreams While Breaking Barriers

I am Priyanka Franky Fernandes, born in the fog city of Igatpuri and raised in Mumbai, Kalyan, Maharashtra. I am proud to be the daughter of Mr. Nandkumar Namdeo Jagtap and Mrs. Meena Nandkumar Jagtap. My life is enriched by the constant support of my husband, Franky Sebastian Fernandes, and my two siblings—Mrs. Pooja Gaurav Ingale and my brother, Snehal Nandkumar Jagtap. I am blessed with two wonderful children: my 9-year-old son Adrian and my 2.5-year-old daughter Kaira. Their love and support have been pivotal in shaping who I am today, and I am forever grateful to each of them.

Early Journey / Career Journey -

I completed my education at B.K. Birla College of Arts, Science, and Commerce (Autonomous) in Kalyan. In 2015-16, after my second year of BMS, I decided to take a break from studies to focus on my career. Although my professors encouraged me to complete my degree, I postponed my studies to build my professional foundation. Over the years, I worked in various roles in the hospitality industry, including as a reservation executive, restaurant hostess, cabin crew, and restaurant manager.

“ASSOCIATE YOURSELF WITH PEOPLE WHO UPLIFT AND INSPIRE YOU: GROWTH BEGINS WITH THE COMPANY YOU KEEP.”

Transformation of Career -

In 2016, I made a significant career shift from the hospitality industry to education. This transition was driven by my passion for teaching and nurturing young minds. I pursued several diplomas, including a Diploma in Aviation Hospitality and Travel Management, an ECCED (Early Childhood Care and Education) diploma, and Montessori teacher training from the DMI Teaching Institute in Bahrain. These qualifications laid the foundation for a fulfilling career in teaching, both in Oman, Bahrain and in India.

Journey as an Influencer -

My journey as an influencer began unexpectedly when a jewelry page reached out to me for a promotion after I posted humorous content on Instagram. This moment opened a new door, allowing me to combine my creativity and humor to engage with a larger audience. As I shared content related to fashion, lifestyle, and personal growth, my role as an influencer grew, blending my love for teaching with a new platform for impact. This transition allowed me to inspire and connect with people beyond the classroom.

Achievements So Far -

In 2024, my efforts were recognized with multiple awards. I was honored as the “Rising Woman Influencer” by MTTV and named “Creative Women Influencer” by Femme Times Magazine. Bharat Good Times India also awarded me a Certificate of Excellence as a teacher and influencer. These accolades affirm my dedication to influencing, teaching, and positively impacting others.

Hurdles in the Journey -

The journey was not without challenges. My decision to pause my education mid-way was difficult, as I had to set aside personal aspirations to focus on building a career. Returning to complete my degree after a 9-year gap required determination and commitment. With the support of my professors and family, I was able to fulfill my promise to myself and my mentors, overcoming this significant hurdle with resilience.

Message for Readers -

Surround yourself with people who inspire and uplift you. Remember, you will not change your life until you change the daily habits that shape it. Step out of your comfort zone if you want to make your dreams a reality. Embrace change, challenge yourself, and never underestimate the power of consistency and dedication.

Q. What inspired you to become a wellness and life coach?

Life on personal and professional front had gone through lot of turbulences and been a roller coaster ride and in this phase what helped to be stable, grounded and still be phoenix and have resilience are the lessons I have learnt from my parents , gurus' teachers which made strong believer to give back what I have and that's only knowledge and wisdom gathered till now in some or other form . Whenever , I have shared some tips, hacks, techniques or ever simplest of suggestions with my near-dear ones it has always shown excellent bewitching results in their personal and professional life which gave me impetus that I can sculpt, mold peoples life with my words and it is rightly said #Words can change Worlds. And I believe if you want a positive change in ecosystem either you make a change , be the change or accept the changing scenarios I chose to be and make a change.

Q. What's your approach to life coaching, and how do you help your clients achieve their personal and professional goals?

In life coaching I prefer the holistic-mindfulness approach and do discovery call for free to understand what is the prima-need of my coaches , does he/she really require coaching, mentoring or training support. All cannot have same methodological approach hence, their personality, emotional, psychological patterns (the phase they are in , gone through and want to reach)are considered and then a customized module is made for them to have best results and in this journey I walk through them in process as support pillar with practical thesis, principles and activities to be followed.

The services are always one on one basis and reports are made for references both for my clients and myself to understand the journey travelled in the process.

Q. How do you think people can overcome self-doubt and build confidence, and what strategies do you recommend for developing a growth mindset?

Self-care-self-love is most important aspect that one should cherish and practice in this busy competitive worldly lifestyle as I always tell in my session if you are fit and fine you can take care of all around. Confidence is in-built in everyone only we need to think if we want happy satisfied and successful lifestyle we can't be dependent on other and hence we need to use our confidence the energy boost like the eagle who flies above the stormy clouds and plucks the feather , break its own beak though it is a painful process as the eagle is aware if it confidently does it will be able to have 30 more years and rule the blue sky again and its own. So, we need to be confident of what we want and take necessary steps on the same accordingly to achieve it in every aspect with strong believe that you can do it as you are born warrior to win all battles of life successfully with smile and Every challenge you face is an opportunity to grow stronger and wiser. Trust in your abilities, embrace the journey, and remember that resilience and determination will always lead you to greatness.

Q. How do you blend mindfulness and spirituality into your coaching?

Mindfulness is art that teaches to keep yourself in present and spirituality is tool that helps you to do. so It does blends together and make a strong base of human life to achieve the set goals and have the soothing pathway without getting carried away of past instance and worried about about future as both are baseless without being in present moment. I conduct sound -Mind healing activities, Brain-storming activity through storytelling and visualization techniques , chakra and aura healing and corrections, signature analysis with scientific mechanism blended with spirituality and using in present moment keeps one in mindful state rather than mind being full with unwanted stuff of life.

Q. How can people reach you or learn about your coaching?

They can reach me on my LinkedIn profile which is :- <https://www.linkedin/in/drkavitapitale> or reach out on Kavita.zion@gmail.com or send a message on my WhatsApp no. 9819464056 So, we need to be confident of what we want and take necessary steps on the same accordingly to achieve it in every aspect with strong believe that you can do it as you are born warrior to win all battles of life successfully with smile and courage.
